8.08 RETURNING TO THE BARGAINING UNIT

An employee, who takes a position within the Company, but outside the bargaining unit, may return to their job within ninety (90) days worked provided this right is not waived by the employee. 8.09 If requested by the Company, any employee's reinstatement after sick leave will be conditional on supplying a certificate from a physician that the employee is capable of returning. 9.04 Discipline that predates the ratification of this first Collective Agreement will not be relied upon by the Company for the purpose of determining or imposing discipline that occurs under the Collective Agreement.

9.05 Employees will be permitted to access and review their personnel file including any medical file maintained by the Company in respect of that employee a maximum of once every two (2) years. A written request for such access must be made by the employee.

Within seven (7) calendar days (or another mutually agreed upon date) of the grievance being presented at Step 2, a Committee person, accompanied by the Union (which may include a Local or National Representative where the Union so requests) shall meet with the General Manager or their designate to consider the grievance. Within seven (7) calendar days of such meeting, the General Manager shall provide its written decision to the Committee person.
